Canadian Association of Oilwell Drilling Contractors (CAODC) announces new Vice-President, Operations

Mr. Joe Bruce, Chairman of the Board, is pleased to announce the appointment of Nancy E.A. Malone to the position of Vice President – Operations of the Canadian Association of Oilwell Drilling Contractors, effective August 1, 2011.

Ms. Malone has been employed with the Association for the six and half years, previously as Manager, Economic Analysis. In her new role, Ms. Malone will assume operational responsibility for all professional staff and the services provided through those individual areas of concentration.

Ms. Malone holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in History and French from Berry College in Rome, Georgia, and an MBA degree from the University of Calgary. Prior to employment with the CAODC, Ms. Malone worked as a coordinator with the G8 Kananaskis Summit, Resorts of the Canadian Rockies, and as Assistant to the Director of Operations, Prime Minister's office.

The CAODC was formed in 1949 and represents the contract drilling and service rig industry across Canada. The membership is comprised of 41 drilling contractors, 71 service rig contractors and 175 associate members.
